

Must Go To Places in Miami

Contributed by Arlene
Wednesday, 29 July 2009

If you are traveling to the state of Florida, you should definitely go to Miami. Here is a list of the must visit places in Miami.

Miami's wonderful beaches are known worldwide. The 3 must see beaches are Miami Beach, The Niki Beach and The Hallandale Beach. These beaches offer an array of activities. Whether you laze around for a tan, swim in the ocean or play beach games, the whole experience is really amazing.

Vizcaya, the museum and the gardens, is a National Historic Landmark. Open year round, the museum is located in the middle of 10 acres of gardens. This is a must visit place if you are simply interested in sightseeing.

Matheson Hammock park beach is a beautiful scenic park. It has unique features that include things like a man-made pool, a marina, a tranquil breeze-swept beach, a wonderful restaurant as well as a snack bar. The snack bar and the restaurant are both located in a historical building made entirely of coral rock.

The Freedom Tower is a memorial built in the memory of the Cuban immigrants in the year, 1925. In the year 1979, it was added into the US National Register of Historic Places.

The Deering Estate at Cutler is a historical, environmental as well as archeological preserve. It offers canoe rides, nature guided tours along with butterfly hikes. It is a wonderful place for both couples as well as the whole family.

This Marina offers some exciting water activities, like scuba diving and snorkeling. It also offers some other beach attractions that are suitable for the family.

Miami Seaquarium features wonderful attractions for kids and adults alike. It features a number of marine creatures, like manatees, killer whales, dolphins among other creatures.

Miami Metrozoo is a host of the various, zoological gardens that boast of more than a total of 900 different animal species. It's a must visit place for the children.

If you are a fashionista, then Miracle Mile is the place to be for you. Miracle Mile is a shopping district located in the Coral Gables area. It is full of street cafes and fashion boutiques.

When planning this trip, consider a limo. To find the best deal in limousines, check out <http://limodeals.com/>.

Have fun!