

Whitney Houston Has A Fit

Contributed by Arlene
Tuesday, 23 February 2010

Whitney Houston has a diva-sized tantrum when her limo arrives a few minutes late. Grammy-award winning singer Whitney Houston exploded after her chauffeur driven limo arrives 2 minutes late. She had just touched down in Australia's Brisbane Airport when she became more than upset that her Mercedes Benz limousine was not waiting for her. It was reported that she was heard swearing in the middle of the airport. Unfortunately a bpasser felt the wrath of the star as well after he suggested that she take off her glasses and big hat and enjoy the sunny weather. She allegedly told the driver to "mind his own business." The singer is scheduled to make two performances over the next week at Acer Stage on Wednesday and Hunter Valley on Saturday.